Experience

Designer & Web developer

ET3-Entertainment | February 2019 - present

Currently, I am part of the development team at ET3-Entertainment, a start-up focused on digital solutions for businesses. I am responsible for the design and coding of web applications for desktop, mobile, and kiosks. I integrate different programming languages and technologies to create products tailored to the customer's needs.

Designer collaborator

Corriere della Sera | May - June 2018

Realize a journalistic visual story based on data. I worked in a team to design an interactive website for the cultural supplement La Lettura.

Graphic design intern

Limiteazero | April - September 2017

I worked in a multidisciplinary design team to build five multimedia pavilions. I created illustrations and graphic layouts for the interiors, and I worked on the UI/UX of the interactive installations.
